

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 42:1-2

Give me justice, O God,
and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless.
From the deceitful and cunning rescue me,
for you, O God, are my strength.

THE COLLECT

By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God,
may we walk eagerly in that same charity
with which, out of love for the world,
your Son handed himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

31: 31-34

See, the days are coming - it is the Lord who speaks - when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah, but not a covenant like the one I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant of mine, so I had to show them who was master. It is the Lord who speaks. No, this is the covenant I will make with the House of Israel when those days arrive - it is the Lord who speaks. Deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I will be their God and they shall be my people. There will be no further need for neighbour to try to teach neighbour, or brother to say to brother, 'Learn to know the Lord!' No, they will all know me, the least no less than the greatest - it is the Lord who speaks - since I will forgive their iniquity and never call their sin to mind.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.*PSALM

Ps 50: 3-4. 12-15 R. v12

R) A pure heart create for me, O God.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offence.
O wash me more and more from my guilt
and cleanse me from my sin. (R)

A pure heart create for me, O God,
put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your holy spirit. (R)

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervour sustain me,
that I may teach transgressors your ways
and sinners may return to you. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

During his life on earth, Christ offered up prayer and entreaty, aloud and in silent tears, to the one who had the power to save him out of death, and he submitted so humbly that his prayer was heard. Although he was Son, he learnt to obey through suffering; but having been made perfect, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 12:26

Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!
If a man serves me, says the Lord, he must follow me;
wherever I am, my servant will be there too.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

GOSPEL

John 12:20-33

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. These approached Philip, who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him, 'Sir, we should like to see Jesus.' Philip went to tell Andrew, and Andrew and Philip together went to tell Jesus. Jesus replied to them:

'Now the hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
I tell you, most solemnly,
unless a wheat grain falls on the ground and dies,
it remains only a single grain;
but if it dies,
it yields a rich harvest.

Anyone who loves his life loses it;
anyone who hates his life in this world
will keep it for the eternal life.
If a man serves me, he must follow me,
wherever I am, my servant will be there too.

If anyone serves me,
my Father will honour him.
Now my soul is troubled.

What shall I say:
Father, save me from this hour?
But it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour.
Father, glorify your name!'

A voice came from heaven, 'I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.'

People standing by, who heard this, said it was a clap of thunder; others said, 'It was an angel speaking to him.' Jesus answered, 'It was not for my sake that this voice came, but for yours.

'Now sentence is being passed on this world;
now the prince of this world is to be overthrown.
And when I am lifted up from the earth,
I shall draw all men to myself.'

By these words he indicated the kind of death he would die.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.*PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Hear us, almighty God,
and, having instilled in your servants
the teachings of the Christian faith,
graciously purify them
by the working of this sacrifice.
Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Jn 12:24

Amen, Amen I say to you: Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains a single grain.
But if it dies, it bears much fruit.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We pray, almighty God,
that we may always be counted among the members of Christ,
in whose Body and Blood we have communion.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Fr Rory Writes:

The Tenth Station: Jesus is stripped of His garments. "We adore thee O Christ and we praise thee, because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the World".

When we began the Way of the Cross it was with great awareness that Jesus came down from heaven to bring God's salvation to our world. To this end He became like us in all things but sin. He is now stripped of all His garments. This in a very real way is what the coronavirus is doing. As with Jesus it is happening with the help of the powers that be, for Jesus it was the Sanhedrin and the Roman Army. As I listen to people in the very limited windows that are open to us; I cannot but echo how much our lives have been stripped by the virus. One echo that I could identify with, was one person's desire never to listen to the media in the morning. It is just shocking the length they go to gather the worst news they can find. Also, the deep, deep affliction of those isolated by the virus left abandoned and in pain as death draws closer. As He is stripped of His garments we are stripped of our comforts, and our distractions, while especially our children were stripped of their school, their supports, their access to life and friends. For others the opportunity to find work and also to access the life of the sacraments. Jesus is stripped.

One our Father, one Hail Mary, one Glory be to the Father.

The Eleventh Station: Jesus is nailed to the Cross. "We adore thee O Christ and we praise thee, because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the World".

Options and choices are now so limited. The sponge and the vinegar are galling and yet offered as a comfort. Our lives can echo these realms of loss. The memory of my dad with his constant pain, ministering as a priest opens one's eyes to deep afflictions. The nails signify His abandonment, there is no way He could crucify Himself - yet He is God. He could put a stop to it. So often the afflictions in our lives as in the Gospel reading today are so self-afflicted. In the Gospel of St John 5: 1-3, 5-16. Jesus heals the man on the sabbath and tells him to take up his mat and walk. The powers that be, and they are the religious ones, are down to him. He is breaking the sabbath. The flow out of the vaccine is a very important element to us returning to a stable life. Interruptions are a challenge and this to my family in Ireland at the moment has become a disturbance. With the help of Him who loves us and died for us, obstacles will be overcome.

Jesus bows His Head and dies.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

One our Father, one Hail Mary, one Glory be to the Father.

Deacon John Writes:

The readings for the 5th Sunday of Lent concentrate on the approaching death of Jesus which Paul considers a priestly sacrifice and John considers the moment of Jesus' "exaltation" and "glorification." We are all offered a challenge by these readings. If we are to achieve our goal of heaven we must stop thinking of ourselves and instead live lives of giving of ourselves to others through our actions. Think for a moment of some everyday events such as lighting a candle - it will emit light from its burning wick until all the wax is consumed. Similarly salt does nothing until used in cooking to provide taste. Parents show their love for their children through sacrifice - home schooling during the Covid lockdown has called for a huge effort by parents, often in limited accommodation and trying to balance work with helping and supporting their children. Think of Mother Teresa who gave up her comfortable teaching career, and with just 5 rupees (13p) in her pocket began her challenging life for the "poorest of the poor" in the crowded slums of Calcutta. Let us do the same and think of others. Pick up the phone and call someone who is unable to go out and possibly lonely. Write a letter to someone, perhaps someone living alone or is unwell. Make a difference in the life of someone.

There is a story with the title: "I made a difference for that one." (Adapted and condensed from "The Star Thrower" - a story by Loren Eiseley (1907-1977), from the book Unexpected Universe): One day, a man was walking along the beach when he noticed a boy picking something up and gently throwing it into the ocean. Approaching the boy, he asked, "What are you doing?" The boy replied, "Throwing starfish back into the ocean. The surf is up and the tide is going down. If I don't throw them back, they'll die." "Son," the man said, "don't you realise there are miles and miles of beach and hundreds of starfish? You can't make a difference!" After listening politely, the boy bent down, picked up another starfish and threw it back into the surf. Then, smiling at the man, he said, "See, I made a difference for that one." Surely that tells of the power within each one of us to make a difference in the lives of others.

Tuesday 23rd March 2021 - National Day of Reflection for COVID-19

We welcome the designation of Tuesday 23rd March as a National Day of Reflection to mark the anniversary of the first national lockdown with a minute's silence at midday and doorstep vigils of light at 8pm. A statement from the Presidency of the Bishops' Conference can be found on our website.

White Flower Appeal 2021

Please be a friend to unborn babies and their mothers. In March 2020 the government used temporary Covid-19 rules to permit home abortion. Both doses of abortion pills can now be taken at home without medical supervision. This is very dangerous and traumatic for the mother. The number of unborn babies killed under the DIY abortion scheme has risen. Please support our campaign to ask the Prime Minister to stop home abortion in our country by filling in your White Flower postcard. Thank you.
