

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

Priest: In the miracle of feeding five thousand people, our Lord shows us that the Father will give us everything we need. Let us ask him for all the good gifts he can provide for us.

Reader: For our clergy, especially the Pope and bishops, that they may continue to nourish us with sound doctrine. Lord Hear Us

Reader: For those who fight against famine, that their work of relief and research may feed the starving millions in our world Lord Hear Us

Reader: For people who hunger for Christ, that they may find the one Lord, one faith and one baptism Lord Hear Us

Reader: For this assembly of the faithful, that we may love Jesus Christ as he gives himself to the multitude in the Eucharist Lord Hear Us

Reader: For our sick and bereaved that the healing hand of Christ may restore health and bring comfort Lord Hear Us

Reader: For the faithful departed, that they may come to the eternal feast in God's kingdom especially those close to each of us Lord In Your Mercy

Reader: We pray for the future of our church community here in Polegate and Hailsham that we may grow and be nourished by a deepening of our faith and spiritual wellbeing Lord Hear Us

Reader: Let us join together in prayer to our Heavenly Mother, Hail Mary

Reader: We pray in silence for our own personal intentions

Priest: Most merciful Father, hear the prayers of the people you have gathered to offer and receive the eternal gift, Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.
