

Bidding Prayers for Sunday 21 September 2025

- Father O Lord, you mark the journey of life with change.
May your word be the lantern that guides the roads of change in our lives
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
- Reader We pray for Pope Leo, his cardinals, bishops priests, deacons and all following the religious life. May they be supported in their different communities by receiving love,
respect and understanding.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
- Reader We pray for our parish and its ministry to the local community, that we may have confidence in each one of us, as we work out the Gospel in our own homes and lives.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
- Reader We pray for those under stress, for those facing times of uneven pressure, for those carrying great burdens in a rapidly changing world, and for those feeling left behind lonely. And unsupported.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
- Reader We pray for refugees fleeing from conflict, oppression, prejudice and natural disasters, may international cooperation and collaboration enable refugees to find a welcome and safety in democratic environments.
Lord hear us.. Lord graciously hear us.
- Reader Let us pray to Mary as we say, "Hail Mary full of grace. . . "
- Reader Let us now pray in silence for the intentions of our families, friends and ourselves.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
- Father The Lord is the everlasting God and creator. He does not grow faint or weary and his understanding is unsearchabl
